Trinity 2020

Trinity Thoughts

Dear Saints:

We are now into the summer of 2020 and the Trinity Season. Despite the ravages that COVID-19 has wrought, we are blessed to be open and well as a church. Our Sunday services have re-commenced at 8:00 & 10:15 a.m. Like many churches, we have adapted to a new reality that prevented us from meeting in person to worship. For example, we now offer Evening Prayer on-line via Zoom and are live streaming our Sunday morning services world-wide. (Check it out through our website.)

We pray this Trinity Season will produce in us much spiritual fruit. Faithful attendance at Sunday and weekday worship, a rich diet of daily Bible study, and private personal devotion are key to promoting our own spiritual growth.

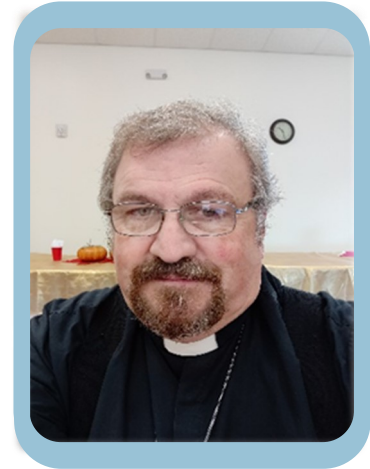

Are we being fruitful? Do we pray for others as well as ourselves? Are we faithful in the gift of our time, talent, and treasure for God? We pray so, for in this you reap great peace and serenity in your soul.

Your involvement in the common life of St. Paul's can never be underestimated.

May God's blessings be upon you during this season.

In Christ,

Fr. Stephen

Sunday @ 8:00 & 10:15 a.m.

I LIE ON MY MAT AND PRAY
A Prayer for Peace

O Lord, we pray to you for peace in this world.

The situation looks desperate, but you see more than we do.

No one understands another any more.

Everyone knows best.

Everyone wants to force his half-baked ideas upon other people.

They beat one another, and they spit at one another, and they set men, your children, against one another.

They build up armaments and puff themselves up.

They pretend to have war and peace in their hands.

Show these braggarts who is Lord of the world, that you alone can talk of existence and freedom.

These peop[e know nothing of what they talk about.

Lord, we ask you for peace in this world.

Your disobedient children ask their loving Father for peace.

You are our hope and our peace.

Let your peace come into this world.

Amen.
